

Editorial Internship

Interested in being an intern at a growing publishing company? Looking for experience that'll get you started in publishing? Join us at Tiger Oak Publications as our group of meetings and events trade publications grows.

At Tiger Oak Publications, we are searching for fall semester interns who'd like to work alongside experienced editors, writers and designers, and who are eager to learn about the magazine industry and apply their editing and writing skills. The work is office-based with 20-25 flexible hours a week. In return for your hard work, you'll gain solid magazine publishing and writing experience, a chance to add clips to your portfolio, plus a reference to help you with your job search once you've graduated.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume and two to three writing samples to Meghan McAndrews, Tiger Oak Publications, 900 S. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55415 or via e-mail to meghan.mcandrews@tigeroak.com. No phone calls please.
